

HOW TO BECOME A FGV PARTNER

International Affairs Division

We are the gateway between FGV and the international environment.
Our activities include:

- Establishing first contact between FGV and foreign institutions;
- Searching for the best international partners to develop and/or finance specific activities;
- Supporting FGV's units in the achievement of international partnerships for the development of projects, school activities and executive programs;
- Promoting short term training programs for foreign students and professionals;
- Promoting international seminars inside and outside Brazil;
- Fostering international consultancy projects;
- Fostering the dissemination of knowledge through events, publications and articles.

For more information regarding our activities, click here.

FUNDAÇÃO GETULIO VARGAS

FGV is a leader in education and research in Brazil and abroad. Founded in 1944 to prepare qualified staff to work in public and private administration, FGV is ranked today among the Top 10 best and most influential think tanks in the world.

Our institutional structure is composed by eight academic schools, thematic research centers and a consultancy office. Our schools are located in Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo, offering undergraduate degree, masters, PhD and specializations.

ACADEMIC SCHOOLS

ADMINISTRATION

ECONOMICS

LAW

SOCIAL SCIENCES

APPLIED MATHEMATICS

RJ

EBAPE

EBAPE

DIREITO RIO

CPDOC

EMAP

SP

EAESP

EAESP

DIREITO SP

CPDOC

KNOWLEDGE AND APPLIED RESEARCH

As an independent and transdisciplinary think tank, our research centers develop a great number of studies, publications and research projects, covering multithematic areas of knowledge with an innovative approach.

- AGROBUSINESS
- SOCIAL POLICY
- PUBLIC STATISTICS
- PUBLIC POLICY
- SUSTAINABILITY
- INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
- FINANCE
- PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
- BUSINESS
- INFRASTRUCTURE
- REGULATION
- BIG DATA
- ENERGY
- LAW

INTERNATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

Partnerships with leading institutions, organizations, and governments across the globe play an important role in FGV's internationalization process. The types of collaboration vary depending on the needs and interests of the partner institution, but can include:

▶ MOBILITY

Refers to both the outward flow of Brazilian students/professors from FGV and the inward flow of international students/professors to study in FGV (International Exchange Programs and Free Movers).

▶ RESEARCH PARTNERSHIPS

Strategic partnerships can bring together complementary strengths and deepen the impact of cross-disciplinary research. International research partnerships may involve collaboration with an individual or a team of researchers overseas;

▶ CONSULTANCY PROJECTS

FGV provides technical assistance to public and private institutions worldwide, developing projects in different areas of expertise. FGV integrates academic knowledge with practical experience and offers customized business solutions in order to meet the specific needs of its clients.

▶ JOINT AWARDS

Partnership arrangement among two or more awarding bodies to provide a single jointly delivered course leading to dual or multiple awards.

▶ TRAINING PROGRAMS

FGV offers custom-made programs in Brazil and abroad tailored to the demands identified by the partner institution/organization.

CONTACT

We appreciate if you could send us your institution/organization factsheet alongside with your areas of expertise and the type of partnership you'd like to pursue with FGV.

For further information or questions, please contact us.

International Affairs Division

Website: dint.fgv.br/en • Phone: +55 21 3799-6067

Email: rafaela.oliveira@fgv.br

Praia de Botafogo, 190, Rio de Janeiro – RJ

Brazil • Postal Code: 22250-900